About Rabobank Group

Rabobank New Zealand is a part of the international Rabobank Group, the world's leading specialist food and agribusiness bank. Founded over 125 years ago as a cooperative structure, by farmers for farmers, the Rabobank Group has approximately 9.1 million clients with a presence in 37 countries.

Here in New Zealand, we stay true to our cooperative roots, which is why growing and strengthening rural communities is at the heart of what we do. For over 30 years, we've been growing a better New Zealand together, supported by our network of 27 offices nationwide.

When you save with Rabobank, it's good for you and good for New Zealand.

That's because you're not only earning a great return, but your savings are used to help fund Kiwi farmers and growers who produce food for us all. Plus, there is no need to switch from your current bank, as the name suggests, a Rabobank Online Savings account is just for savings.

Open an account online and if you need help, our friendly Client Services team are just a phone call away.

With 125 years of global strength, Rabobank New Zealand, part of the international Rabobank Group, offers you the peace of mind that your savings are in trusted hands.

Frequently asked questions

Where to get help?

Based in New Zealand and Australia, our Contact Centre team can assist you anytime Monday to Friday from 8am - 6pm (New Zealand time).

Give them a call on 0800 22 44 33 or +64 9 975 2512 if you're travelling overseas.

Where do I find the latest interest rates?

- Visit our website www.rabobank.co.nz
- Under the 'Online Savings' tab, click 'Interest Rates'.
- View all the current interest rates for all Rabobank Online Savings products.

Can I open an account at a Rabobank regional office?

Our staff located in our regional Rabobank offices can assist with identity document verification to support the account opening process but are unable to assist with any other day-to-day account enquires for our Online Savings service.

What is a nominated account?

A nominated account is an external bank account held in the same name as your Rabobank Online Savings account. You need to provide details of this account on your application form. It is used for transferring money to and from your Rabobank Online Savings account.

How is my account protected?

The security of your bank account and transactions is our top priority. To ensure safe and secure access, our website and mobile app require multi-factor authentication. This added layer of protection helps you bank with confidence and peace of mind.

Can I add new savings products to my account?

When logged in to your Internet Banking or mobile app you can open new savings accounts and term deposits in the 'Accounts' tab. Please note; this is to add new products along with your existing account not for a new account holder.

What is Secure Code?

The Secure Code generator on the Rabobank Online Savings NZ app provides strong security and added convenience for our customers when accessing Internet Banking and authorising transactions.
