General Terms and Conditions for Accounts

These General Terms and Conditions apply to each account with Rabobank New Zealand Limited ("Account").

Your use of an Account, including any card, confirms that you understand and accept these General Terms and Conditions.

22 May 2024

1. General

- 1.1 The agreement between you and Rabobank about the Account is contained in these General Terms and Conditions and all other documents that set out the terms and conditions on which the Account is provided by us to you, including loan and security documents and any document that may be required to be executed by you and/or us as part of, or as a condition of, the Account (the "Contract"). If there is any inconsistency between these General Terms and Conditions and any other document forming part of the Contract, that other document prevails.
- 1.2 The Contract does not limit or exclude any of our or your rights under general law, or banking custom or practice, except where those rights are inconsistent with the Contract. However, the Contract is subject to any non-excludable requirement imposed by law and to the Code of Banking Practice.

2. Account opening and operation

- 2.1 At the opening of the Account and at any time during the lifetime of an Account, you must provide us with any documentation and information we request from time to time and in any form or manner. This information must be accurate and complete.
- 2.2 We require information to:
 - (a) enable us to set up and maintain your Account, and
 - (b) in order for us to undertake any action required for you, us and any other member of the Rabobank Group to comply with all laws, rules, codes, regulations and other legal requirements in force from time to time in New Zealand and in any jurisdiction worldwide including, without limitation, tax compliance and anti-money laundering and countering terrorism legislation and sanctions regulations ("Applicable Laws").
- 2.3 You acknowledge that this documentation and information may be disclosed to any other person or body:
 - (a) to enable it to be reported and used in compliance with the relevant Applicable Laws; and
 - (b) in accordance with our Privacy Statement published on the website from time to time.
- 2.4 If at any time it becomes unlawful for us to comply with our legal obligations in relation to your Account (including as a result of you becoming subject to any international financial or economic sanction), we will have no liability for failing to comply with any such obligation and will not be liable for any losses which you may incur as a result.
- 2.5 You must operate the Account in accordance with the Contract and Applicable Laws. We may amend, adjust, suspend, cancel or reverse any payment instruction which is not made to us in accordance with the Contract and the Applicable Laws.

- 2.6 You are responsible for the conduct of any person authorised to operate the Account, including for any debts they might incur. If you wish to revoke their authority to operate the Account, you must tell us in writing.
- 2.7 We may require you to satisfy us of your identity under Applicable Laws.
- 2.8 We may refuse to act on any instructions which we consider may be invalid or where we otherwise consider we have good reason to refuse.
- 2.9 We may refuse, block or delay payments to or from your account, where we consider the payment may involve fraud, money laundering or other criminal activity.
- 2.10 We may act on telephone, e-mail or facsimile instructions.
- 2.11 We are not liable to you or anyone else for any loss or damage that you or anyone else suffers as a result of our refusal to authorise any transaction where we have the right to so refuse.
- 2.12 The Account must not be in debit or over any loan limit at any time without our prior agreement.
- 2.13 We may provide you with a statement of the amount you owe us on the Account, or anything else about the Account. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure the information provided in the statement is correct, and we consider the statement evidence of activity on the Account, including amounts owed. We will not be liable for or in connection with any inaccuracy, errors or omissions in that information. You must contact us as soon as possible if you believe anything shown in the statement is incorrect.
- 2.14 We may monitor and/or record telephone conversations for verification purposes, and retain any such recordings.
- 2.15 You must indemnify us against any loss, cost, expense or damage we suffer in connection with the operation of the Account, or any conduct we undertake in good faith relating to the Account. We may debit to the Account any amount you owe us under this indemnity.
- 2.16 Payments into the Account must be made in a manner acceptable to us.
- 2.17 Unless you instruct us otherwise in writing (or we are notified by Court Order), you are solely entitled to all funds in the Account and no-one else has any interest in them.
- 2.18 We need not comply with any instruction to apply any deposit for a specific purpose or subject to any specific condition, and are not liable for not doing so.
- 2.19 Unless we agree in writing otherwise, you warrant that the Account is wholly or predominantly for business and not personal use.
- 2.20 If a transaction or instruction from you or us falls outside business hours, after processing times, or on a non-Business Day, we may process the transaction or instruction on the preceding or following Business Day. For the purposes of these General Terms and Conditions, "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or a nationwide New Zealand public holiday.
- 2.21 We may refuse to accept, or make, payments in cash.
- 2.22 We may accept, act and rely on any copy of a document received from you, including by electronic means (including e-mail) as if we had received the original of the document.

- (a) where sent by post, upon the earliest of actual receipt, the day when the addressee would have received the item in the ordinary course of post, or two Business Days after posting; or
 - (b) where sent by facsimile, when the machine or system from which it was sent indicates that it was sent successfully; or
 - (c) where sent by e-mail, when the e-mail is sent and the communication enters your communication system; or
 - (d) where delivered, upon actual delivery, except where sent / delivered after 4.30pm or on a day which is not a Business Day, in which case service is taken to be effected on the next Business Day.
- 3.2 No error or omission in a statement, demand or notice from us affects its validity.

4. Statements

- 4.1 Unless you request otherwise, at least every 6 months we will make available to you records relating to any transactional Account you hold with us.
- 4.2 You must check your Account records and contact us immediately if you want to question any record.

5. Interest

- 5.1 We may pay interest on any credit balance in the Account at a rate determined by us at our sole and absolute discretion. Different rates of interest may apply. The current applicable credit interest rates (from time to time) are published on our website: www.rabobank.co.nz. Interest is calculated on the daily balance and credited to the Account monthly in arrears on the last day of each month, or on each interest payment date if applicable, and on closure of the Account. Interest is accrued from the first date of the credit balance or the date of the last interest payment, up to but not including the date of the next interest payment, withdrawal of all the credit balance, or closure of the Account. In some situations, interest in relation to amounts credited or debited to an Account on a non-Business Day may be attributed to the following interest period.
- 5.2 Interest on debit balances where there is a loan limit is determined by the Contract.
- 5.3 Interest on debit balances where there is no loan limit will be as agreed with us or, if there is no such agreement, as determined by us.

6. Other payment methods

- 6.1 You may authorise another person to debit the Account (direct debit user). The direct debit user must provide us with documentation (in a standard bank format which is satisfactory to us) of your authorisation.
- 6.2 You may authorise us to make regular automatic payments from the Account to another person. Your authorisation to us must be either:
- (a) in writing and on our standard form; or
 - (b) given through Rabobank Internet Banking.

- 6.3 If you have authorised a direct debit user to debit the Account and you want to stop this arrangement, you must contact us. Provided you give us full written details of the direct debit arrangement, including the name of the direct debit user and, if applicable, the due date and amount, we will promptly process your request. You should contact the direct debit user and notify them of your action.
- 6.4 If you have authorised us to make regular automatic payments from the Account and you want to stop these payments, you must provide written instructions to us at least three Business Days before the next payment is scheduled to be made. Alternatively, you can use Rabobank Internet Banking to stop automatic payments.

22 May 2024

1. Information

- 1.1 You must promptly notify Rabobank of a change to any information held by Rabobank about you in relation to any Deposit.

3. Confirmation of Deposits

Rabobank will confirm in writing its acceptance of a Term Deposit, the date of acceptance, amount invested, interest rate, interest payment frequency and maturity date (as applicable).

4. Joint Depositors

- 4.1 Where a joint Depositor dies, the survivor(s) will own the Deposit.
- 4.2 Joint Depositors are jointly and severally liable for all amounts and obligations owing to Rabobank.

5. Instructions

- 5.1 You or an Authorised Signatory may give instructions by telephone, secure message in Rabobank Internet Banking or in writing.
- 5.2 Rabobank may monitor and record telephone conversations, and retain any such recordings.
- 5.3 Rabobank may refuse to act on any instructions which it considers may be invalid or if there is a dispute between Depositors and/or Authorised Signatories, or it may require original written instructions.

6. Interest

- 6.1 Interest on Deposits is calculated on the basis of the number of days from, and including the date of, Deposit acceptance or interest payment (if applicable) up to but excluding the date of maturity, withdrawal or the next interest payment (as applicable).
- 6.2 Information on current interest rates for Deposits is available from any Rabobank branch or by phoning 0800 500 933 or visiting www.rabobank.co.nz. Different rates will apply depending on the account balance and the interest payment frequency.
- 6.3 Rabobank may, at any time, increase or decrease the interest rate on Call Deposits. Interest on Call Deposits is payable on the first day of each calendar month in arrears and on the date of complete withdrawal, and is credited to the same Call Deposit Account unless instructed otherwise. Interest is calculated on the daily closing principal balance.
- 6.4 Interest on Term Deposits of less than one year is payable only on maturity.
- 6.5 Interest on Term Deposits of one year or more is payable in equal instalments to the nominated account, in arrears monthly, quarterly, half-yearly or yearly (as instructed at the time when a Term Deposit is opened) and also on maturity, and is calculated from the date of acceptance.
- 6.6 Rabobank will deduct from the returns payable all tax and other duties that apply to the Deposit.

7. Withdrawals - Call Deposits

- 7.2 A withdrawal will take effect on the day of your request if the request is received by Rabobank before 4.30pm on a Business Day. Otherwise, the withdrawal may not occur until the next Business Day.

8. Maturity – Term Deposits

- 8.1 If Rabobank has no repayment or reinvestment instructions before maturity, Rabobank will seek instructions on whether the Deposit will be re-invested in another Term Deposit or repaid (together with any unpaid interest). If we are unable to obtain instructions from you, on maturity the funds will be deposited into a Call Deposit Account, or your nominated account.
- 8.2 Re-invested funds, including any additional funds, will be subject to these Terms and Conditions.
- 8.3 There will be a seven day “cooling off period” which commences the day after the maturity of a Term Deposit, where the maturing funds have automatically been reinvested into a new Term Deposit, during which you can withdraw or transfer the funds in the new Term Deposit without paying any break fee or incurring a reduction in interest accrued in that Term Deposit ("Cooling Off Period"). During this period you can:

- (a) choose a different duration for your new Term Deposit;
- (b) select to add to the amount of your new Term Deposit (from a Call Account);
- (c) change the frequency with which interest is paid on your new Term Deposit;
- (d) change your instructions as to the amount to be reinvested (principal and interest, or principal only); and
- (e) instruct us that, instead of reinvesting in a new Term Deposit, the full amount of your Term Deposit plus interest earned should be paid into a Call Account.

- 8.4 Where any of these changes are made during the Cooling Off Period, that new Term Deposit will be broken at no cost and another Term Deposit will be established, starting on the date during the Cooling Off Period that the new Term Deposit was established.

9. Early Breaking of Term Deposits

- 9.1 If you wish to break part or all of a Term Deposit before maturity you must request this by telephone, secure message in Rabobank Internet Banking or in writing. Rabobank may also break your Term Deposit early in certain circumstances, including where you breach a term of this Contract or we otherwise close your Accounts. When a Term Deposit is broken early, the funds (less any break fee and interest earned but not yet paid) will be repaid to your nominated account.

- 9.2 Break fees for Term Deposits are as follows:

- (a) Term Deposit entered into prior to 1 November 2019: the break fee is equal to Rabobank's break costs (as determined by Rabobank) and reflects future cash flow losses incurred by Rabobank as a result of interest rate differentials that exist between wholesale market rates applicable to the existing Term Deposit and current wholesale market rates applicable for the remaining period of the Term Deposit, adjusted to reflect a net present value. The break fee increases in line with increases in the following: interest rates, the amount broken and the market margin.
- (b) Term Deposit entered into on or after 1 November 2019: the break fee is based on the percentage of the term that has elapsed, in accordance with the following table:

Percentage of term elapsed	Fee (as % of gross interest earned)
less than 20%	80%
20% to less than 40%	60%
40% to less than 60%	40%
60% to less than 80%	20%
80% to less than 100%	10%

- 9.3 The fee may be deducted from the interest and/or the principal of the Term Deposit payable at the date of the break. This fee is also payable if Rabobank exercises its right to close the Term Deposit early. Please contact Rabobank on 0800 500 933 for a quote on the exact fee applicable.

- 9.4 The break fee referred to above at clause 9.2 will not apply if the Term Deposit is terminated within a Cooling Off Period in accordance with clause 8.3.
